Stafford King Wiese Architects Names New Principal

Sacramento, California, February 16, 2006 — Gregg Rock has been elevated to Principal of Stafford King Wiese Architects, which provides architecture, planning and interior design for the education, healthcare and civic/commercial markets. With 30 years industry experience, Rock joined SKW in 2003 as Director of Operations and remains responsible for directing the firm's business services including marketing and business development, administration, finance, technology and human resources. An architect by trade, he was formerly the Federal Market Sector Leader at Jacobs Facilities Inc., where he was responsible for the firm's Construction Management and Program Management services related to federal sector projects in the western US since 1990.
